Children of Divided School

Authors:

Katarina Reščarnek (16), Kristina Reščarnek (25), Maja Bertole (25)

Short summary:

It is about young people, growing up in a post-war environment, in Mostar.

Our main question was : How was religion connected with the war that divided their city, their people, their school..and of course...their lives..? Take a look and see what do they think, what do they feel and how do they live.
