O vsebini

Lej Do Luta! je zgodba o čudnem kraju, kjer ljudje ne živijo povsem na običajen način. Nenavadnosti na prvi pogled niti niso opazne, prikradejo pa ti pa se za hrbet, če z njimi preživiš malo dlje časa. Če si dovolj vztrajen, po dolgem času opazovanja njihovega nerazumljivega vedenja, odkriješ nekaj najlepšega: njihove besede govorijo brez glasu, zato pa veliko bolj naglas. Govorijo v vsej svoji polnosti in v vseh svojih številnih pomenih hkrati. Njihove besede prežemajo vso njihovo bit, njihove misli in sanje in občutke in ljubezen in domišljijo in sovražstvo. In vse to pronica na dan skozi telo, skozi glas, skozi usta in ušesa in skozi kožo... Tako kot je spregovoril Gregor Samsa v Kafkovi Preobrazbi. Tih, a najbolj razumljivo.

Look Who Is Wandering Around! is a story of a strange place, where people do not live in completely ordinary fashion. The peculiarities are not evident at first, they will sneak up behind you, if you spend more time with them. If you are persistent enough, you will discover, after studying them closely, something beautiful: their words speak without voice but are heard more loudly. They speak in all their fullness, in all their multiple meanings at once. Their words soak their being, their thoughts, dreams and feelings and love and imagination and hatred. All these things come to the open through the body, through voice, through the mouth and ears and through the skin ... It is just like Gregor Samsa spoke in Kafka's Metamorphoses. Silently but the easiest to understand.

Short summary:
